WASHINGTON, June 30 .- Senator Bailey of Texas assaulted Senator Beverldge of findiana tonight just after the senate had adjourned from executive session. The Texas senator was dragged away and separated from his opponent by some of those about the senate. He was very angry and threatened severe harm to the Indiana sen-

The episode was the result of a heated controversy which the two senators had during the afternoon, when Senator Beveridge had said that Senator Bailey had made 'an unwarranted attack" on Solicitor Penfield of the State department. In executive session Senator Beveridge, like other facing Beveridge.

"I did not intend to insult you," replied just laws.

Bailey Starts the Trouble.

As the words were uttered Senator Bailey threw himself upon Senator Beveridge, who is a man hardly up to the average in physique, and seized him by the throat with both hands. The rush was so sudden and herce that the chair in which was sitting was pushed back ! diana senator's neckwear was ripped and Balley meanwhile struggling to get free marine cable route across the ocean. and lunging toward Senator Beveridge. As he was removed a little distance he was a threat about killing.

Without further effort, however, he walked away when Senator Bacon urged him to be quiet and led him toward the democratic side. Senator Bacon engaged Senator Bailey in conversation for some time, advising him to cool down. Senator Spooner also went across the alsle and discussed the matter with the Texas senator, urging him to apologize and if possible fix it up at once, but Senator Bailey refused all such proffers, declaring that Senator Beveridge had insulted him in the senate and that he had taken the only senate and that he had taken the only course, as the Indiana senator had refused to withdraw his remarks.

Statement of Beveridge.

Senator Beveridge remained in the chamber for some little time and continued to smoke his cigar. He remarked to those who spoke to him on the subject that it did not amount to anything. He made no effort to resist or resent the attack made on him. In fact, the whole thing was over in a very brief interval, before much resistance could have been offered.

When Mr. Beveridge was asked tonight if he had any statement to make regarding the assault committed on him by Mr. Hailey, he expressed great regret over what had occurred and said he had no personal resentment over the matter. The conversion of the district of Oregon.

Mr. Beveridge said that he was not excited, but re mained cool and collected and expressed to Mr. Bailey his wish that their relations pright continue agreeable.

Mr. Beveridge denied that he had been choked by Mr. Bailey. According to his version the Texas senstor had made a lunge at him, but his arm was caught by Senator Spooner before the threatened blow landed.

of Outlaws.

GUTHRIE, Okl., June 30 .- Sheriff A. J Bullard and Under Sheriff Coburn of Roger Mills county, Oklahoma, were killed today in a battle with horse thieves while the officers were attempting to arrest members of the band of outlaws. The fight occurred in the northeast portion of the county and continued for about thirty minutes, the outlaws finally surrounding the two officers and riddling them with bullets. The entire band made its escape, supposedly uninjured, although the sheriffs put up a plucky fight. Bullard had served two years as sheriff of that county and was recentely nominated by the democrats for re-election. While it is not positively known who composed the gang of outlaws, yet suspicion points to the Bert Casey band, as they have been operating in that portion of daily wage scale because they are actually the territory.

Skill and Industry Cannot Bring More Wages Under Piecework Plan.

"The Union Pacific desires to treat its employes, all of them, with the utmost consideration and whenever they come to us with a reasonable proposition they will get fair treatment, but when they make unreasonable demands we must resist them and will resist them."

This statement was made by President H. G. Burt of the Union Pacific railroad company to a reporter for The Bee yesterday morning. Continuing, Mr. Burt said: "These men are injuring their interests by striking. The Union Pacific pays its machinists and boilermakers more money than any other western road with the exception of the Southern Pacific. Our scale is 10 per cent in advance of the other companies and still these men come to us for an additional 10 per cent increase. We cannot and will not grant such demands.

Insists on Piecework.

ness?" "Now, these men say to us: 'We know you are paying high wages, but we ought to have an increase because the cost of living has increased." "Certainly the cost of Hving has increased, but the cost of everything else has likewise increased. The cost of railroading has increased 50 per cent within the last few years and yet the railroads have made no reduction in the wages of their employes. "Yes, print it, and if you do print it as give it, you will then, or at least your editorial writers will then surround it with innuendoes and insinuations designed to destroy the real meaning and give room for misconstruction. That has been the policy of the papers. If I thought tha papers would publish the facts as they are I would gladly make out a statement of the company's side of the case, but what's the use? "What the papers want to bear in mind this: The railroads are not seeking to be unfair and in this strike matter we want to be just and equitable; all we ask is that we be accorded fair treatment. We are not trying to tear down this community, but on the other hand we are striving and have striven for years to build it up, to promote its welfare in every respect and it is an injustice to us to misconstrue our motives in this or any other

"And it has been stated in some quarters that the Union Pacific is down on the unions-is trying to stamp out unionism. That is a mistake. We have no fight with unionism and absolutely no desire or intention of suppressing them or injuring their influence." "No," interposed General Manager Dickinson, "we really prefor to deal with union men. We have dealt with them for years and shown no disposition to antagonize them that I have ever heard of." President Burt was asked if the company would reinstate any or all of the men now out on a strike if they consented to return to work on the company's terms. He
